

I am appalled that Sinclair Broadcasting is showing a propaganda piece against John Kerry. These are public airways and the television stations are not serving the public interest. We deserve fair reporting, not media conglomerations trying to influence an election to their own benefit.